

Seventh Annual African American Prostate Cancer Disparity Summit

Thursday, Sept. 22, 2011

United States Capitol, Washington, DC
Capitol Visitor Center
Congressional Meeting Room North - 268

9:00 AM Summit Opening

Welcome

Artie Shelton, MD

PHEN Survivor Network, Olney, MD

Summit Introduction and Overview

Mr. Thomas A. Farrington

President & Founder, Prostate Health Education Network (PHEN), Prostate Cancer Survivor

9:15 AM Understanding the Disparity Through NCI Data and Statistics

Kathy Cronin, PhD

Chief, Data Analysis & Interpretation Branch
National Cancer Institute

Angela Mariotto, PhD

Chief, Data Modeling Branch
National Cancer Institute

9:45 AM The Prostate Cancer Disparity - Progress and Challenges

“Why the Prostate Cancer Racial Disparity” was a major topic at PHEN’s 2nd Annual Summit in 2006. This session will explore progress made over the last five years and current challenges.

Moderator:

Mr. Dale Bell

PHEN Survivor Network, West Chester, NY

Panelists:

Jacques Carter, MD, Associate Professor, Harvard Medical School

Folakemi T. Odedina, PhD, Director, Community Outreach & Minority Affairs, Prostate Disease Center, University of Florida

Steven Patierno, PhD, Executive Director, George Washington Cancer Institute, George Washington University

11:00 AM Session: Policies and Prevention

National policies have a direct impact on efforts to address disparities. With a 60% higher prostate cancer incidence rate, any opportunity to reduce this burden on African American men becomes a priority.

Moderator:

Mr. Robbie Robinson

PHEN Survivor Network, Boston, MA

Prostate Cancer Prevention - Understanding the Potential

A study on treatment using Dutasteride (Advodart) showed a relative risk reduction for prostate cancer of 23%. What is the opportunity for reducing the African American incidence?

Presenter:

Gerald L. Andriole, MD

Robert K. Royce Distinguished Professor
Chief of Urologic Surgery
Washington University School of Medicine
St. Louis, MO

The Prostate Cancer Act

Congressman Edolphus “Ed” Towns (D - NY)

U. S. House of Representatives

National Policies

Mr. Scott Williams

Vice President, Men’s Health Network

12:15 PM LUNCH

U.S. Capitol, Capitol Visitor Center

1:00 PM - 3:30PM Session: The Directions of New Prostate Cancer Treatments and Clinical Trials

Through monthly webcasts and other activities, PHEN has a major emphasis on increasing the knowledge and awareness about medical innovations, new treatments and clinical trials that could help save lives and increase the quality of life. This session highlights some important developments.

Moderator:

Jacques Carter, MD

Associate Professor, Harvard Medical School
PHEN Medical Advisor, Boston, MA

Presentations:

Provenge - Immunotherapy Treatment Update and Clinical Trials

Mr. Scott Riccio, Associate Director,

Health Policy & Advocacy

Dendreon Corporation

Prostvac - Immunotherapy Clinical Trials

Richard Cutler, PhD, Senior Clinical Scientist

BN ImmunoTherapeutics Inc.

Advanced Prostate Cancer Clinical Trials

Janice King, PhD, Clinical Scientist

Medivation Inc.

Survivorship Treatment and Clinical Trials

Carsten Goessl, MD, Director, Global Development Leader

Amgen Inc.

Survivorship Clinical Trials

Luke Nordquist, MD, Founder & CEO,

Urology Cancer Center & GU Research Network
Oncogenex Pharmaceuticals

3:45 PM - 4:30PM PHEN Award Recognitions

PHEN will recognize individuals and organizations that have made significant contributions to PHEN efforts in the fight against prostate cancer.

Introductions and Presentations:

Mr. Thomas A. Farrington

President & Founder, PHEN

Recognitions

4:30 PM Closing Remarks:

Mr. Thomas A. Farrington

4:45 PM - 6:00 PM Reception

Capitol Visitor’s Center
Congressional leaders invited

Friday, Sept. 23, 2011

8:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Washington Convention Center - Room 202 B
Washington, DC

Educating, Supporting and Mobilizing the African American Community to Eliminate the Prostate Cancer Disparity

This session will focus on PHEN’s efforts and strategies for transferring medical innovations, knowledge about treatments and clinical trials to African American communities for action.

9:00 AM Welcome:

Mr. Terrance Afer - Anderson

PHEN Survivor Network, Norfolk, VA

Opening Remarks and Introductions:

Mr. Thomas A. Farrington

President & Founder, PHEN

Remarks:

Congressman Gregory Meeks (D - NY)

U. S. House of Representatives

Bishop Adam Jefferson Richardson, Jr.

Presiding Bishop, 2nd District, AME Church, Washington, DC

Dr. Carroll A. Baltimore, Sr.

President, Progressive National Baptist Convention

Minister Cynthia Rochester

Prostate Cancer Survivor

Founder, Save Our Men Foundation

10:00 AM The Government’s Role and Actions

Garth Graham, MD

Deputy Assistant Secretary, Health and Human Services
Office of Minority Health

10:20 AM Session: Building Effective Community Outreach Capacity

Joining hands in prayer and action with churches to outreach within their communities is an important part of RAP Cancer. This session focuses on strategies for building effective prostate health educational capacity with churches and other community partners.

Moderator:

Mr. Jerry Womack

PHEN Survivor Network, Boston, MA

Panelists:

Representative Fred Allen, Arkansas State Representative,
PHEN Survivor Network

Rev. Dr. Grainger Browning, Jr. Senior Pastor,
Ebenezer AME, Ft. Washington, MD

Rev. Dr. Frank D. Tucker, Senior Pastor, First Baptist
Church, Washington, DC, PHEN Survivor Network

Rev. Dr. Duane T. Kay, Senior Pastor, First Baptist Church, North Brentwood, MD, PHEN Survivor Network

Ms. Shelly Glenn, Vice President, Vantage Oncology

Sanford J. Siegel, MD, LUGPA,

President & CEO, Chesapeake Urology Associates P.A.

11:20 AM A PHEN Strategy for Community Awareness and Mobilization

Increasing the visibility and awareness of prostate cancer within African American communities is a key RAP Cancer strategy for mobilizing the community in the fight against this disease.

Strategy Overview:

Mr. Thomas Farrington

President & Founder, PHEN

Video Presentation

11:45 AM - 12:00 PM

Summit Closing Remarks:

Congressman Gregory Meeks (D - NY)

Mr. Thomas A. Farrington

